MOTOROLA GDR4800
(351MHz Band / High Power 5W / 30 Channels)

Channel Select knob (DO NOT USE CH15 as a talk channel due to the CQ call channel)

On/Off/Volume Control knob
On – clockwise
Off – counterklockwise

Push-To-Talk (PTT) Button
Press and hold down PTT button to talk.

LED Indicator
Red : Trasmitting
Green : Receiving

External Earphone

Push-To-Talk (PTT) Button
Press and hold down PTT
button to talk.

Keypad locked indicator

Battery Indicator blinks when depleted
and it is NORMAL.

Keypad locked button
Long press to lock/unlock

Accessory
Connector

Maximum 6 chargers for one AC Power Supply.

Red : Charging
Green : Fullly Charged

WAIT A SECOND after press PTT button, then start to talk, otherwise your first few words would be cut off.

When you press PTT button and it beeps "pi pi".
You cannot talk because another talks.

【Troubleshooting】

| No Power | Make sure that the Li-Ion battery is charged. Make sure that the Li-Ion battery is set at the right position. |

Message not transmitted

Verify Channel is same as others.
Verify the LED indicator is illuminated in RED while speaking.
Replace microphone.

Message not received

Verify Channel is same as others.
Verify the LED indicator is illuminated in GREEN while listening Replace earphone.

?

【 How to replace accessories】
Microphone Turn screw counterclockwise to loose by screwdriver or coin.

Earphone Twist the plug to unplug. It is sometimes plugged tightly.

Bottom View

Li-ion Battery Push down the battery latch and hold it depressed while removing the battery.